 WOW: Twin Rose Lady Riders Chapter

Happy Anniversary TRLRs!!

Wow, what wintertime fun we have at our Anniversary Parties. Loxley's Outlaw Room was warm and cozy for our 2018 festivities. I never knew there were so many motorcycle parts filtrated throughout everyday words. Or, that giant dice could cause so much chaos. It's always a great time to catch up with so many members and their significant others, as well as Barb & Ed from HOPE! We sure did miss seeing those who could not attend.

Special thanks to the party committee of Kim and NanC. They planned a very festive evening and kept us entertained from beginning to end. Their efforts made this year's gathering a great success.

Rose of the Year award was presented to Misse for her contributions and participation with the Twin Rose Lady Riders during 2017. As one of our newer WOW/TRLR members, Misse attended chapter rides and, most notably, generously provided her time and talents to our 2017 Ride for H.O.P.E. She hand made beautiful jewelry pieces for the silent auction AND (wo)manned the auction table for the entire event. Misse – your smiling face and fun-loving personality are great additions to our WOW Chapter!

Dan was honored as Support Rose of the Year for his 'support' of several Roses while traveling to and attending last year's Colorado Springs Ride-In. Thanks Dan – your support to the lady Roses is very much appreciated!! [Read more about Dan and his recent adventures later in the newsletter.]

Foster Rose Pat bid farewell to Pedro and Consuela. Can't wait to see the fun they will have with Sigi, Wolfi, and their friends at The Heritage.

Check out the rest of the newsletter for anniversary party pictures and other fun TRLR adventures. In the meantime, stay safe and warm and I hope to see you on February 11th at Round the Clock Diner – East for our first indoor meeting of 2018.

Twin Rose Lady Riders Anniversary Party!

Jan. 13, 2018, Loxley's Outlaw Quarters

Pat turned over care & custody of Pedro & Consuela to Sigi for 2018!

Lynn named Misse 2017 Rose of the Year for her chapter enthusiasm!

Big THANK-YOUs to Nancy and Kim for organizing a great party from start to finish — with all the craziness in between!

The room got so quiet during the Bike Parts Quiz. Charlie was enTIREly flabberGASTed by the TANKer truck answer — and he drives one!

We even had non-riders Barb & Ed and Audrey Dawn's friend Tina concentrating on the quiz — and Tina finished 2nd only to winner Trish!

Pat having a go at the Penguin Sledding Game.

Thanks to Nancy, Kim AND Barb for all the snowman/penguin/frog prizes and swag!

Audrey Dawn and Wolfie ripped into the crazed potholder game.

A stoic Gene holds Team 1's losing snowwoman.

Trish, Charlie and Dawn's snowman won the race. Nancy was somehow keeping score.

Sigi's dessert was yummy, and Nat enjoyed WW points-free pickles, too.

Support Guys wistfully eyed the sports screens at the bar.

Underside of the Ultra-Realistic YZF-R1M

This year marks 20 years of Paper Yams. Their printable models come in two varieties: Realistic and Ultra-Realistic. All you need is heavy paper, a ruler, scissors, Exacto knife, awl for creasing, felt pen, pins, glue, and PATIENCE...lots of patience.

Good luck making those tires!

CHATTER BOX

"Bright-eyed and bushy-tailed" Lynn and Dawn attended the early morning AMA Sanctions Meeting, then hit Oregon Dairy on the way home.

UNDER THE HEADING OF READINESS

Roses are attending the following:

- Dawn & Lynn – Hand Gun Safety class
- Sue & John – Stop the Bleed/Save a Life seminar
- Dawn & Lynn – AMA's Risk Management session
- Lynn – Workplace "Active Shooter" class

Here's one of the great publicity shots using Sigi to promote The Heritage retirement village.

Winter Wriding...

I'll Have Some Ice with My Ride

By Lynn

Hummm, what to do on a Saturday in January when the temperature reaches 50 degrees?

Take your motorcycle off life support (battery tender), grab Flat Bandit and go for a ride – YES!!

With the warm temperatures (well, relatively warm for January), SilverFox and I headed out for a 45-mile ride to clear some old gas out of his carburetor and to check out the Susquehanna River. Flat Bandit happily jumped into the trunk for the ride. I have seen worse, but anytime ice forms on the river then starts to thaw and break-up it always makes for some amazing views.

Flat Bandit enjoyed the scenery and said “Who would even think about swimming with all that ice?” However, as we approached the river, Flat Bandit pleaded to go ice skating, but I said “No, there’re too many cracks. We don’t want you falling through. The Twin Roses need you to go along to Johnson City, TN in July.”

Arriving home, I hooked SilverFox back on life-support. All of us safe and waiting for our next adventure.

Are you riding this winter?

(Nobody reported going on a Polar Bear Ride on 2018's frigid Jan. 1st!)

Send your destinations, tales, and pictures to suespittle@comcast.net for our Winter Wriding Story Series.

My Call to Dan (in warmer climes) –

By Lynn

Dan and his 35lb Amberjack caught in FL on his birthday.

After the 2018 TRLR Anniversary Party, I placed a call to Dan in FL to tell him he had been named Support Rose of the Year. Dan humbly expressed thanks for the recognition and wished he and Jo could have joined us for the party. I let him know a small token of our appreciation would be waiting for him when they return to PA in April. They are planning to ride to Johnson City for the 2018 Ride-In.

The same day we honored Dan in PA he was celebrating his 64th birthday fishing in FL. Jo had planned 2 surprise birthday parties for him and said, “this honor will add to his joy.”

Jo and Dan – we miss you both and look forward to you sticking around PA a little more this spring and summer to join us for some riding.

Calling All Volunteers!!

As 2018 gains full speed and we look forward to another TRLR Chapter year, please consider participating and volunteering for a 2018 committee. The Twin Rose Lady Riders is YOUR Women On Wheels Chapter and you can make it all that you want it to be by getting involved. Here's where you can help –

Ride Committee: plan our 2018 Chapter ride schedule. No need to attend every ride.

Ride for HOPE Committee: plan and organize our annual charity event (10/7/18).

Anniversary Party Committee: plan fun and activities for January 2019 celebration.

New Member Welcome Committee: As needed, I would call on willing TRLRs to meet with prospective new members within a smaller group.

If interested in helping on any of these Committee's, please contact me. The Board and I look forward to your involvement and sharing fun in 2018.
