 WOW: Twin Rose Lady Riders Chapter

Greetings Roses & Friends!

I hope that those of you who celebrate Easter had a lovely holiday.

We went camping with some friends and enjoyed a ham and corn pudding meal in the woods. It's nice to celebrate in different ways. I took Good Friday off and we tried an extra day camping. It's always fun to see what my boredom level will do. I actually relaxed (yes, really!) and enjoyed reading a book or two I'd checked out of our local library. Our dog River enjoys walking and exploring also, so that filled in some time. So far, so good! (I want to thank Elaine for introducing me to corn pudding. I have had baked corn in the past, but corn pudding adds a cornbread element to it. It continues to be a hit whenever I make it!)

Unfortunately, our first ride of the season was canceled due to rain and cold. The Roses who were planning on riding still met for brunch. Let's hope the days get a little warmer and sunnier.

Please keep in mind, even if you don't want to ride, you are always welcome to join us for our meal/ice cream stops. The FOOs generally have a route in mind and know an approximate arrival at the restaurant/ice cream shop. It's always fun to have a group together! No matter what form of transportation you prefer!

To follow up on my last director's letter, I did take my heated gear for a spin one evening. It was toasty. I deliberately didn't wear a balaclava, so I could feel how cold it really was. I'm very happy to report that nothing fell off. Perhaps that was just a 2021 thing and I won't leave possessions all over the US this season. We can only hope.

We've secured a few donations for the Ride for HOPE. If you have any businesses that would like to donate something for our raffles, please let me know. I can provide a letter and flyer for them.

On April 24, the York Motorcycle Club held their 10th Annual Riders' Rally for Autism. Hope you all supported them, even if you didn't ride. They donate their clubhouse and their time for our Ride for HOPE. We should try to give back. NOTE: May 21 (the evening before our HOPE ride) is their chicken BBQ dinner.

Thanks Roses and friends, for all you do!

Welcome to Laura and Kurstyn

By Lynn

Lynn asks, "Where am I?"

Lynn is quick with the camera when out on her Spyder! QUACK! Where did she spot these duckies?

ANSWER CAN BE FOUND SOMEWHERE IN THIS ISSUE.

P.S. Kurstyn is very talented and crafted this beautiful White Rose from a paper napkin!

TRLR Past Prez Marie Moves Back East

Marie retired from her job in CA and has now settled in Myrtle Beach with Ninja the cat. She had sold her scooter out west and sent this photo of her new S. Carolina ride! It's an E-Z Go — purple and chrome — running on six 8-volt batteries for 48 volts of unbridled power and a top speed of 15-20. With approximately 10 miles to a charge, it'll get her to the grocery store, local shrimp stand, or the State Park where she volunteers to help with the sea turtles. All the important stuff.

Her new home has a nice guest room, so she is offering it to any Roses who'd like a trip to Myrtle Beach. Here's her contact info if you'd like to visit or just say hi:

Meet Laura and Kurstyn, the newest members of the Twin Rose Lady Riders. I connected with Laura on FB when she posted looking for lady riders in the Central PA area. Met them both at the recent YMC Autism Ride and we chatted for a long time. Laura already joined WOW® and signed up her wife, Kurstyn, as a support member. And, I'm pleased to say they also officially joined TRLR. Yay!! You will see them roll up on their bright red/orange Spyder very soon and share in our fun.

A warm TRLR welcome to Laura and Kurstyn!!

Friends Frolic in Florida

By Gwinnie (aka Guinevere)

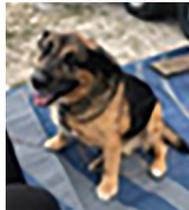

Warm weather was the destination. Lynn strapped Pedro, Consuela, and I into the front seat and we all headed south, making it safely to the beach at Jacksonville, FL. The Saint Johns River was to our backs and the Atlantic Ocean was just over the sand dune. We were literally camping on the beach.

Pedro and Consuela quickly took to relaxing in the sunshine and enjoying the river view. And can you believe this... we met and made good friends with fellow riders Debbie and Ray! Debbie came rolling in on their blue Spyder and Lynn just had to wave her down to say Hello. Ray and their camper followed. They set up camp close by and even let Pedro, Consuela and I sit on their beautiful Spyder. (If you look closely, you can see part of our camper and truck in the background.)

There were many other friendly campers there too, including Russ and Debbie and their Gnomes, and Cynthia and Donald with their big boy Banjo.

The sun & sand were good, but the food & fun were great. Lynn and I met Debbie and Ray at their favorite hibachi restaurant, the Okinawa Japanese Grillhouse & Sushi Bar. Just glad I was not next on the hibachi grill!!! While we were indulging in the entertainment of the hibachi master, Pedro and Consuela were exploring the city of Jacksonville and the wonderful building paintings.

Then the next week we met Ray and Debbie and enjoyed Chinese food at a Hot Pot & BBQ restaurant. That was fun. If you've never been to a Hot Pot, I can vouch for it. We also had fun celebrating Ray's birthday.

Another great stop was at Gator's BBQ and connecting again with the owner, Sandy. If you want some awesome BBQ, check them out. They were voted the Best BBQ in Jacksonville!!

And if I say so myself, it WAS the best!! Plus, they give every customer a small cup of banana pudding for dessert – Yum YUM!! Lynn wanted to share our BBQ run with Russ and Debbie and brought them back some takeout. But first, we just had to include a stop at the Dreamette for some of their infamous ice cream. And yes, Lynn and I indulged with a chocolate dipped soft serve cone. While we were out enjoying our BBQ and ice cream, Pedro and Consuela spent some time exploring the jetty rocks. (Consuela needs a new outfit that's more suited for travel.)

Although Lynn had to work, we all spent some beautiful and fun time on the beach.

The month went by quickly.

All too soon we said goodbye to our new friends and saved the memories with more photos before we packed up the RV and got back on the road to head for PA.

Thanks Lynn! We had a great time in Jacksonville!

So, Roses (and my groundhog siblings), have a blast exploring this earth no matter if it's on 2, 3 or 4 wheels, — or more if with an RV.

And remember... not all those who wander are lost!
