 WOW: Twin Rose Lady Riders Chapter

Hi Roses and friends!

Hope you have enjoyed your summer so far! I enjoyed seeing gnomes in Akron followed by a fun, retro lunch in Adamstown!

I'm so glad all the Roses got home safely from their travels out west. It looks like Casper was a great time! Thank you for sharing your adventures with us. I'll be seeing you all in Minnesota next year.

As you all know, our Ride for HOPE is coming up on October 6.

What you may not know is that Dawn Paws has agreed to chair the ride! She has extensive experience in organizing and running fundraisers, rallies, non-profits...a business. Contact her at mountaingrrl@mac.com Please start advertising the ride and soliciting donations. This year we are allowing businesses to sponsor the ride and will offer to print their logo on event materials. If there are any local businesses you would like to approach, please let Paws or myself know, as we have already started sending out donation letters. Let's make this a great ride for a great charity.

I had another lovely ride last weekend with two other ladies. I rode sweep and realized...this is pretty cool. Although more and more women ride, I suspected that a few passers-by were surprised to see us enjoying the sunshine on two wheels. I usually don't think about being a female on a motorcycle—it's just what we do, who we are, you know? But even as cool as we are, we still smile and wave like lunatics when a little kid waves at us from the back seat at a stop light.

Be safe Roses and Friends.

Natalie

Here's the table-top version with the real bike in the background.

Only a few thousand pieces

LEGO Harley Fat Boy kit(s)!

Not satisfied with the tiny one, some crazed LEGO fanatics built a full-sized Fat Boy out of 69,569 pieces.

And then there is this...

From the sublime to the ridiculous, have you seen the bike made of balloons?

Lynn's August Brain Teaser:

Four TRLRs met for an ice cream ride. Dawn, Natalie, Bernie and Elaine put on their safety gear, started their bikes, and took off for their ride. Bernie said Natalie was riding two bikes ahead of her, Elaine was not riding either first or last, and Natalie was not riding second. In what order did they ride?

ANSWER CAN BE FOUND SOMEWHERE IN THIS ISSUE.

~Biker's Prayer~

May your belly
never grumble
May your clutch
never break
May your ride
never tumble
May your rear
never ache

Kathy R just got back from her solo trike ride through the west and hit the road again for a Pocono H-D fundraiser. The group rode to Pocono Raceway and she got to do 3 laps of the track! 12 hours and 370 miles made for a little bit too long of a day, but she still had a blast. The event benefitted the VALOR Clinic Foundation, improving access for veterans to quality healthcare and shelter.

Second Sunday TRLR Ride to the Gnomes

August 11, 2019 -- Akron, PA

The Roses could not have asked for a milder day to enjoy Dawn H's Magical Mystery Tour.

Dawn H, Nat, Melissa, Emma, Sigi, Kathy R, Kathy M, Sue S & John met in Marietta. Dawn FOO'd along nice Lancaster back roads, crossing 3 covered bridges along the way. 25 miles later we parked at the Rail Trail to meet up with Dawn Paws & Crystal (with pup Riley), Amy, SuzQ, and Lynn (with little LJ). Hope Amy rides with us again.

When we'd had our fill of cuteness at the gnome village the group headed another 20 miles to Boeringer's for lunch and ice cream.

Thanks to Dawn for planning a neat ride. Great fun.

Riley had a fine day riding around on Crystal's scooter and splashing in the creek behind Boeringer's.

Part of the group posing in front of the first of 3 covered bridges.

John took this photo of Papa Gnome keeping an eye on the big group.

Aunt Gardenia was all excited! She & Sue were "gnomed" by Nat.

Sue's new Photographer Gnome had to get a shot of Nat's Biker Girl Gnome.

Lynn's grandson LJ was a little young to fully enjoy the magic but he was feeling the love!

A Firefighter Gnome lives inside a hydrant. (A bunch of Roses were geocaching in Charlie's honor.)

CHATTER BOX

Sue S & John went for a ride "around the block" to test if Sue's hand exercises were helping the intermittent numbness. No such luck, but they rolled up to the Mt Zion light at the very moment the police had stopped traffic for the PA Texas Roadhouse Homes For Our Troops Ride. It was like watching a parade. Looked like a good turn-out but didn't spot anyone they knew. Kathy R suggests we put this ride on our calendar for 2020 if it is once again based at the York franchise.

As of Aug 1 Lynn was officially Last Rose Wandering – still out there after the Ride-In, exploring the U.S. with her Spyder Silver Fox in her toy hauler. What stories she will have to tell her grandson (and us)!

Melissa has accepted a temporary job assignment in Rochester, NY and we'll miss riding with her. Nancy & Jon kindly offered to tend her H-D Black Pearl while she's away.

Nat is riding to Nova Scotia, then hopes to join the international WRWR baton-carrying leg from Fishkill, NY to Ohio!

Dawn & Charlie put 5,260 miles on their bike odometers during their 27-day tour out West. They had mostly great weather but dove into a mid-western MickeyDs during one storm. When it was over they were rewarded with this full rainbow over their bikes.
