Greetings Roses & Friends,

We tried to have a June ride, but sometimes things just don't work out. We were scheduled to ride to Knoebels, but with only two participants, we decided to enjoy Longacres in Barto instead. Unfortunately, rain was forecast for our start time. We completely altered our plan and caged to the Pancake House in Ephrata. Fortunately, Trish and Sue K were able to join Dawn H and myself. It was my first time there, so I stuck with traditional pancakes, which were amazing. I will say the S'mores pancakes looked delightful and might be my next order there.

Longacres was rescheduled for the following Sunday and Trish and Dawn H were able to complete the mission.

The first Ride for HOPE committee meeting took place on the 18th. Our biggest need right now is advertising! Please post on socials and tell your friends. It's going to be a great ride and the more we raise for HOPE the better. We also decided to have a bake sale this year! Dust off those recipes, Roses. If you have any friendly businesses that might be willing to donate to our raffle, please let me know!

Our next chapter ride is to Plum Creamery on Saturday July 13th. We've scheduled some of the chapter rides for Saturdays to enjoy some different ice cream parlors—to be honest, I've think we've already been to all the ones that are open on Sundays!

Don't forget that next year's WOW Ride-in will be in Canaan Valley, WV. June 24-26, 2025. I'm pretty excited that I'm able to go to this one! Mark your calendars!

Hope to see you on the 13th!

Take care and be safe!

Natalie

Happy Birthday

Ride for HOPE - Sat., Sept. 21

Sue & John have been checking and reworking last year's ill-fated route that had, at first, gotten tar & graveled, then rained out. The route will pass a fine barn quilt and a bear in a sportscar. (But you never know what the guy might put on his tree stump.) It will be 48 miles with two nice stretches along the river.

2024 MAWMR

June 20-22, Gettysburg

by Audrey Dawn

Another MAWMR in the books. Kathy M is now on the Board, and all three Dawns were there, but only Gracie & Gregor made the trip with their moms. Trish came in the cage, and Rev joined Paws;

Lori and Audrey Dawn

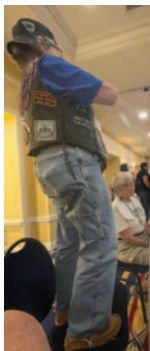

Anna from WRR was an honorary Rose for the weekend; and my sister, Lori, was able to enjoy the weekend with us.

Joyce was there in spirit.

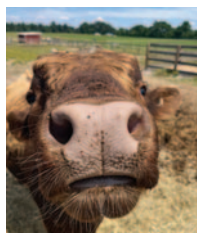

Of course, they all were tossed aside during the fierce game of Musical Chairs. It's not for the faint of heart or the uninsured, believe me.

Kathy M was busy most of the weekend with her Volunteer Coordinator duties. She corralled Gabby and I to help set up the tricky tray auction and Gabby and Anna helped sell tickets. Even with all that "work" going on, Trish and Gabby found time to do the YMCA dance, and we took in the cornhole tournament and giant Jenga game.

Gabby Dawn couldn't stay off the chairs, as it's the "best" vantage point to take pictures.

Audrey Dawn made some friends at Land of Little Horses. Hey! They're not little horses.

We naturally had to visit Kandie Bowers and Native Feather, and any chance to spend a little time with Barb Titanish and Carol Nelson is never a bad thing. Three of us managed to get a short ride in on Friday, but the heat won and even ended up cancelling the Parade of Chrome on Saturday.

The banquet is a little teary-eyed at times, listening to survivors' stories. But in the end, we always leave with a happy heart.

This year's banquet auction raised several thousand dollars for special items, more than I've ever seen before. I'm pretty sure one woman paid $1500 for a set of cups to share with friends! There was a special handmade pillow that went for several hundred dollars, and another item (it escapes me at the moment exactly what it was) that went for $3000(!) The 50/50 was $735 to the winner, and, in true MAWMR fashion, the winnings were donated back to the charities. I haven't heard a total raised but keep an eye on the MAWMR Facebook page; I'm sure they'll tell us as soon as they have a final total.

Anna did a good bit of sightseeing, even in the extreme heat, managing to get out for a decent ride every day including a stop at the Round Barn.

370 registered for the event and 320 actually arrived in the heat. There were a lot of new faces and also some faces from the past that returned this year.

Steve "Mr. Nancy" Warren was with us, also. He was happy to see Nancy's legacy living on and growing.

MAWMR is still holding true to the spirit of women riders supporting women, raising money for cancer care, and being a "family."
