Greetings Roses & Friends,

I'm so happy to report that our rides were completed on their scheduled days this month! We followed Kathy McGrath on some beautiful back roads to Plum Creek Creamery. I enjoyed my grilled ham pretzel melt and ice cream for lunch. (Always ice cream for the Roses!) We followed the same lovely route home and parted ways in Brickerville. I always wonder what the other motorists think of these crazy women on motorcycles honking and waving at each other. The weather was lovely going to lunch, but did get a bit sweaty coming home.

Our second annual Roses in the Wild weekend was great! Seven Roses made our way to the PA Grand Canyon! What a fun weekend with beautiful scenery. Not to mention some great company. [See photos inside]

Don't forget that our Ride for HOPE is coming up quickly in September. I've sent quite a few donation requests out. If you have a business you frequent, see if they'll donate! I'll be sending 'begging for bucks' letters to my friends and family. Every little bit helps! Please mark your calendars—we'll need plenty of volunteers that day.

Our next chapter ride is to Havre De Grace on Sunday, August 11th. Time to head south for some good Chesapeake Bay seafood. Yum! Don't forget, you don't have to ride to participate in our outings! We love seeing you no matter what transportation you use!

At the beginning of July, I took a vacation day and attended the Kutztown Folk Festival. I hadn't been there since I was a kid and it was as much fun as I remember. Of course I had to have chicken pot pie for lunch. Now, for those of you who don't speak Lancaster County, 'chicken pot pie' is a dish made in a pot with chicken, potatoes and noodles. If it is really good chicken pot pie, it is yellow. Safron makes such a difference. Chicken pie, on the other hand, is chicken, sauce and vegetables in a crust and baked in the oven. Also delicious, but different. Part of the reason I enjoy festivals like this is the artisan aspect. I found a gentleman who makes handmade fountain pens. They were absolutely beautiful. Another stand had a letterpress and handmade cards. That's what makes these events special for me. I'm not going to lie, the homemade bread and ice cream were pretty amazing too.

Hope to see you on the 11th!

Take care and be safe!

Natalie

Ride to Plum Creek Creamery

Sat., July 13

The Plum Creek management and cows decided Dawn's shirt passed the "modest and appropriate" test. The sign said nothing about weird.

H.O.P.E.'S ANGEL CORNER

BY BARB TITANISH, PRESIDENT & CO-FOUNDER H.O.P.E.

Over 15 years ago the Mid-Atlantic Women's Motorcycle Rally group adopted HOPE as one of their charities. Every year I go to this 3-day event wherever it is being held, this year it was held in Gettysburg. I love this group for two main reasons, first, they are such a giving group of ladies. I have made so many friends there over the years and every year more attend. This year they had more than 350 women bikers from all over the East Coast in attendance. Second, this is where I met Carol, my assistant, and 7 years ago she joined us at HOPE. She is my right-hand gal and she makes the office run so smoothly. Carol had been on the MAWMR Board for 25 years and was one of the original members. She is one of four who have attended every Rally over the past 34 years. We do not have a number made from this event yet but even in this heat, it was a successful event. So, I just wanted to let my friends at MAWMR know how thankful we are for them and how lucky I am to call them my friends. I also, have to thank them for sending Carol my way because she is my right-hand gal!

...and the results are in!

On July 28th a bunch of Roses gathered for a real nice impromptu visit to Pat!

Roses in the Wild!

Seven Roses had a wonderful July weekend in the wilds of Pennsylvania! We traveled to Wellsboro under clear sunny skies on Friday afternoon.

After we had all checked in, we walked up to the Roost restaurant for dinner. Not only did it have a great atmosphere, I loved the funky sandwiches with names like Chicken Dilly! We wandered up to the park to visit Wynken, Blynken and Nod in the park. I can't be in Wellsboro without seeing that fountain. Of course, we stopped to have ice cream at The Main Street Creamery.

Since we had 3 cars and 4 motorcycles at the hotel, we decided to cage it to our Saturday destinations.

Our first stop was Colton Point State Park. I feel that this park has the best overlooks for the PA Grand Canyon. Their, let us say amenities, are not the best. Literally an outhouse, to be blunt. Leanord Harrison State Park on the other hand has just completed a renovation. The store was fun and there was a Park Ranger discussing the tools that were used in the lumber industry. Shout-out to Bernie for knowing what one of them was!

The owners of Miller's Purely Maple arranged to have their son open the store for us. Imagine my disappointment when there was only one maple cotton candy on the shelf! When I asked, his response was—oh! You're the motorcycle ladies, I thought you'd be on bikes. He went up to the house and brought us down an entire box of it! Just the nicest people! Fully laden with maple syrup, maple syrup mustard, maple syrup peanut butter and maple syrup candy, we made our way back to the hotel.

Although I enjoyed all our activities last year, I felt like we didn't really get to visit each other or explore Wellsboro itself. I wandered around Wellsboro, buying big foot stickers, drinking iced coffee and reading. Some Roses visited the local cemetery to geocache and letterbox; some had snacks and conversation in the lobby, and some did a little shopping.

We enjoyed The Wellsboro House so much last year that we decided to replicate the experience. It was delicious with a relaxed atmosphere. They are also the only place that takes reservations.

Sunday morning dawned cool and sunny. We had a lovely, safe ride home.

Next year we are thinking of trying a new location.

Please let me know your ideas!
