SOUTH CENTRAL PA CHAPTER NEWS

Vol. 30 No. 4

www.twinroseladyriders.com TwinRoseLadyRiders@gmail.com

 WOW: Twin Rose Lady Riders Chapter

Greetings Roses & Friends,

Our first ride of the season was actually a "drive," but we had some yummy food and great conversation at Jim and Nena's in Dover. I considered riding, but it was 48 degrees when I left my house. Just a bit cold for a solo ride.

A quartet of Roses managed to escape the Prohibition Room in Columbia. Well done ladies! I heard a rumor there is a "Harry Potter-ish" escape room coming to that location. Anyone who knows me knows I'm a bit of a 'Potterhead,' so I'm pretty excited about that. I just might show up in robes and carry a wand. To be entirely honest, I'm just finishing up reading the book series — again.

Our next event will be International Female Ride Day to Schell's in Temple, PA. I know we've been there for the last couple years, but it's so nice to celebrate with the other WOW Chapters. They have good parking, food and ice cream. All the things I require for a good outing! Please try to come and celebrate on May 3rd!

In a bit of 'housekeeping': I received our AMA sanction for the Ride for HOPE. We are official! Let's start advertising everywhere!

Take care and be safe,

Natalie

Meets 2nd Sundays:

Happy Birthday

Natalie May 26

Roses, if your birthday has been missed send it (mo/day) to suespittle@comcast.net

I wasn't much help but after the hour still could've used a slug from that bottle of moonshine.

At one point I was leaning against a locked closet. The other Roses solved a clue and I yelped as the door suddenly popped open revealing a secret staircase! We somehow (don't ask me how) solved the prohibition mystery down in the cellar with a minute to spare!

Equally comical, when the time was up, we all began conscientiously tidying the rooms that we had just "trashed" in our quest for clues. Didn't want to leave things in disarray! (Wonder how many groups do that.) The guy had to stop us, saying he had employees for that!

The whole thing was very creatively done. The other (supposedly more difficult) escape room is evidently a jail cell and entails handcuffs. Yikes! We might still be in there. And take note: Keystone plans to build a third room with a Harry Potter-ish theme. No knowledge of Harry needed, but we thought of Nat immediately.

The Keystone Escape Rooms are inside a large historic Columbia warehouse filled to the brim with vintage stuff for sale. Quite the emporium! Worth a stop and look-around just in itself.

Roses Escape

by Sue S

As a newbie, I had zero idea of how this all goes down. A rustic General Store filled with antiques. Padlocks and more padlocks of every variety. Combinations hidden everywhere. I'd been told that each escape room has a different theme and types of clues, but old hands Trish and the Kathys glommed onto this one right away. Even so, we were grateful for the steady stream of hints sent to us by the comical proprietor on the big screen.

Bridget McCutchen has set a world record as the youngest person to travel around the world on a motorcycle!

Bridget grew up on a farm in northern Wisconsin but always had an adventurous spirit. At 19 she travelled across the country on her bike to find work on a tall ship and then on movie sets for Pirates of the Caribbean and Star Trek.

At 21 she set out on a 14-month journey. 45 countries and 50K miles later (double what was needed to break the Guinness World Record) she motored back to Wisc.

She says not much bothers her now(!) and she's proud to tell other young people that if you set your mind to something, you can do it. PBS aired a short film about her on the series "Wisconsin Life", season 11, episode 11.
