 WOW: Twin Rose Lady Riders Chapter

Greetings Roses & Friends!

Thank you, thank you, thank you!! I'm always worried leading up to the Ride for HOPE. Will we have enough raffles, will anybody come to ride, will we have enough help? And then the day arrives! Our tables are full, the Twin Roses roll their sleeves up to set up, and then all the riders roll in.

I can't thank you Roses enough! As of this time, we are at over $9,700 in proceeds to HOPE. It was a lot of work, but HOPE is an amazing organization and worth it!

Although I wasn't able to participate in the September monthly ride, it looked like the Roses who were able to attend had a great time!

Where was I that weekend? I was in Bristol for the NASCAR race. One of the ladies at work has a sister who works for a NASCAR sponsor. I was amazed when she offered us pit passes for the race weekend.

I've been to a few races, but this is the first time I have been able to sit in a pit box to watch.

What's next for the Roses? We have our final ride of the season is on October 12. I hope you can come out, or at least meet us for lunch. Then we start our indoor meetings.

Take care and stay safe!

Natalie

Happy Birthday

Twin Rose Lady Riders' "Second Sunday" September Ride

Sept 13th was a beautiful blue-sky day for riding and Sigi, NanC & Jon joined up with FOO Kathy M.

They headed for Biglerville to tour the National Apple Museum housed in a creaky restored pre-Civil War bank barn. The museum's mission is to preserve history and artifacts pertaining to the Apple and Tree Fruit Industry. They enjoyed learning about apple production and its historical importance to Adams County.

After the tour they went for ice cream at the Half Pint Creamery in Gettysburg.

So many flavors to pick from!

So sad to report on more motorcades for fallen officers.

This time: SAVE THE DATE - Oct 4th starting and ending at Freedom Biker Church with a stop at the Northern Regional Barracks. Go to the Freedom Biker website fbcyorkpa.org and watch for last-minute details to be posted soon.

No raffles, just donations in any amount for the 5 police families affected by the latest violence.

Many thanks to Eisenhower's York H-D for the use of their lot and helpful set-up assistance.

30th Annual

SEPT. 20, 2025

It was a beautiful day and the bikes rolled in.

Dawn and Lynn manned the busy registration table. Nat, Bernie, Kathy R, Kathy M, Sigi, and NanC also helped.

Izzy and John stopped to tell Limer Bernie and route designer Kathy R how much they enjoyed the roads.

Limer Sigi was the 50/50 Winner! Here she is with Anna who also came by to help the Roses.

40 riders registered at $15 ea.

At left is Sigi's pressed flower art, a lovely addition to the raffle tables manned by NanC and Kathy R. Thanks to everyone who contributed items.
Raffle tix and 50/50 sales = $384

Barb won it!

The Rusty Rooster chuckwagon food truck was a dynamite addition to the event. Wonderful pulled pork and more! Hope they made out OK for the day and would consider returning in the future.

Red Rose Rider Cheryl White hands Bernie an additional donation before taking off with Tom and their beautiful sidecar.

There were lots of donations to tally up.

18 Red Rose Riders showed up making them the Club Challenge winners again for 2025.

We were also thrilled to register 9 Beholders. Thank you all!

The Red Rose Riders also mopped up – winning 1st, 2nd, and 3rd best poker hands. (Our Dawn won Worst Hand!) All prize money was donated.

Watch for news of the final figures as registrations, donations, and raffle numbers are added up.

John and Ed caught up.

And everyone wanted to stop by to chat with Barb.

Carol came by, too.

Left to right: Barb, Kathy M and Elle from the MAWMR board. Maybe more MAWMR ladies will enter future events.

It was a good day for H.O.P.E.
